Kansas Soybean Association Thanks Moran for

Bold Leadership and Unwavering Support

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The Kansas Soybean Association expressed its gratitude to Congressman Jerry Moran for his bold leadership on behalf of farmers and rural communities. □

“On behalf of the state’s soybean producers, The Kansas Soybean Association (KSA) Board wishes to thank you for being a champion for Kansas farmers,” said KSA President Craig Gigstad of Valley Falls. “Throughout your distinguished career, your support for Kansas agriculture has been unwavering.”

“Kansas soybean producers are among the top producers in the nation and feed families every day across our nation and the world,” said Moran. “During my time in Congress, I have worked hard to preserve a strong safety net, open new foreign markets, and maintain existing domestic markets for Kansas soybean farmers.”

The KSA highlighted Moran’s efforts to expand international markets for agricultural commodities. “Your efforts to build and preserve international markets for our commodities are extremely important to Kansas farmers. Legislation that you have sponsored to open markets in Cuba for agricultural trade is vital to Kansas Soybean Producers,” said KSA President Craig Gigstad.
